Odd Fellows celebrate 150 years of service to community

By Debbie Mitchell

Every Thursday night, for 150 years, a society of generous and giving men have gathered in Laurel.

Shrouded in mystery by secret passwords, initiation rites, signs of recognition and ceremony, some might call it a secret society. But to the multitudes to whom the group has provided aid, the works of Charity Lodge #27 are no secret.

Since 1857, the group, whose tenets are helping others in friendship, love and truth, has willingly served the community. On July 10, Charity Lodge #27, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, Laurel, celebrated its 150th birthday.

The lodge will host an open house with refreshments Saturday, July 21, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at its headquarters on Poplar Street. After the open house, members and invited guests will meet at the American Legion hall for a dinner and service awards.

According to Noble Grand Arnold Hearn, the open house will include a presentation on Odd Fellowship and a display of historic items, including a Bible that was presented to the lodge in 1857 by, according to its inscription, "The Ladies of Laurel." Richard Hutchinson, lodge historian and lodge secretary, said the leather-bound Bible was discovered a few years ago.

Also on display will be a photo of a schooner, the George W. Truitt Jr., that sailed from Bethel and that was owned by the lodge from 1910 to 1923. The lodge has receipts and other documentation regarding the schooner.

Hutchinson, who moved to Laurel in 1997, said that before he became an Odd Fellow he was aware of the organization but not what it did. After being introduced to Odd Fellows by member Pat Murphy, he joined the Laurel Lodge.

"This is a good group of men and I like the camaraderie," he said. "I like the projects."

According to Hutchinson, the origins of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows date back to 17th-century
